ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS

MONDAY, OCT. 9, 1916

DOLLAR DAY THURSDAY

With the weather bureau at Washington promising fair and warm weather for the whole of this week, the indications point to the most successful Dollar Day in Hickory Thursday ever held in piedmont North Carolina. Hickory merchants have prepared to do an immense amount of business, and the values they will set before the trade on Thursday will have the effect not only of making thousands satisfied but of advertising Hickory as the premier shopping center of this section of the state.

It is with confidence that the trading public will be well pleased with the offerings Thursday that the Record invites the attention of readers in this entire section to the advertisements of merchants in today's Record. It will be well to remember that the special values go on sale at 9 o'clock and that every sale will be for cash. No credit will be given any customer.

This will be the second annual Dollar Day for this section and it will prove a greater success than the first. Each year it will be made better, but unless present indications fail, the merchants will encounter difficulties in making next fall's Dollar Day greater than this.

FAIR NEXT EVENT

The Catawba County Fair, to be held at Hickory October 23-27, is the next big event in the life of the people of this section of North Carolina.

In its own grounds, with permanent buildings, the fair has started on the path to bigger things. The exhibits will be more numerous and more representative this fall than ever, because the premiums are more numerous and larger. The attractions will be more entertaining, the management having closed with Herbert's Greater Shows for the amusements. Over 30 attractions, to say nothing of several free acts and two brass bands, will afford diversion to the crowds that swell the grounds night and day during the four days.

People who remain away from the Catawba County Fair this month will regret it the rest of their lives.

It is a commendable spirit shown by the Lenoir News in urging Caldwell people to patronize the Catawba Fair this fall in large numbers. Catawba people last year, the Record among them, rejoiced in the success of the Caldwell Fair and for our part, we aided it in every manner possible. The Record hopes to be able to assist Caldwell more in future than it was able to do last fall, and it assures its Lenoir neighbor that our people will be glad to reciprocate any interest shown us.

Announcement is made that Mr. Walter N. Keener, for more than a year managing editor of the High Point Enterprise, will locate in Lincolnton October 15 for the practice of law. That's his old home and he will be given a warm welcome back. The Record wishes Mr. Keener success in law and hopes he will find time to visit Hickory occasionally.

The Record felt all along that Theodore Roosevelt would have made the strongest candidate the Republicans could name, and as the election time draws near, more people are agreed that such is the case. For one thing, Roosevelt lets one know where he stands.

Any man, woman or child who can be reached by United States mail may have the Record six days a week for one year for the small sum of $3 on Dollar Day. We have had a number of extra receipts printed and will be able to accommodate our friends.

The Record is quite confident that the citizens of Catawba and Lincoln counties will give J. D. Elliott, a great vote. He is a business man, knows what the state needs, and would not be afraid to do the right thing.

Mr. L. E. Brinkley of Conover, route 1, was in Hickory Saturday and discontinued his subscription to the Democrat. He said he liked the Record better.

The Record is not apologizing for the lack of reading matter in this paper, because the space was taken to advertise a good thing.

Dollar Day will be celebrated Thursday. And it will be a feast, all right.

That German submarine landed in Newport in time for the world series.

Remember that Dollar Day values will go on sale promptly at 9 o'clock.

The fair dates are October 23, 24, 25 and 26. Are you coming?

MAX GARDNER SPEAKS TO LARGE AUDIENCE

Mr. O. Max Gardner of Shelby, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, spoke here Saturday night before a crowd that taxed the capacity of the Academy of Music and Democrats who heard him were enthusiastic about his speech. He presented the party's record in nation and state. Numerous hearers said they had not listened to a finer argument in years, and all felt that Mr. Gardner had done the cause good. He was introduced by Judge W. B. Council in a forceful address. President Bascom Blackwelder presided.

NEWELL SPEAKS HERE

Introduced by Mr. A. A. White, Mr. Jacob F. Newell of Charlotte, several times candidate for congress from this district, spoke Saturday night in Union square to the Republicans of this section. The Republican hall was too small to accommodate the crowd. Republicans said they had never seen him in better trim and pronounced it one of the best addresses they had ever heard.
